8. The candidates will be held responsible for filling the online registration form and making the major subject choice on their own behalf, because it is the sole responsibility of the candidates. Hence, it is recommended that the candidates may proceed to the process of online registration at their own level. However, they can take the help from the Help Desks established by the institutions for the convenience of the candidates. The institutions will not be held responsible for any online activity done by the candidates.

5. GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. The merit of each candidate shall be determined on the basis of marks secured by him or her in the Common Entrance Test (C.E.T.).
2. The minimum qualifying marks in C.E.T. will be 20% for General Category students and 15% for SC/ST candidates.
3. The combined merit list will be prepared on the basis of marks secured by the candidates in the Common Entrance Test.

4. As 5 % marks (of those obtained in the C.E.T. by the candidate) will be given to candidates seeking admissions under 85% quota, who have passed their 8th and 10th classes examination from school situated in rural areas of Punjab. For this, they will have to submit a certificate of that school falling in rural area at the time of passing 8th as well as 10th class issued by the Head of the school, duly counter-signed by the concerned D.E.O (by the concerned Sarpanch in case of school affiliated to C.B.S.E/ I.C.S.E)
5. The reservation of seats as given above shall be strictly adhered to. However, in case seats in a reserved category remain vacant, on account of non-availability of qualified candidates, such seats may be filled up from the general category candidates.
6. The admission of total number of seats in the colleges of education for candidates belonging to different subjects will be done as per the norms laid down by the N.C.T.E as per clause 3.1 of the appendix no. i.e. 25 students per teacher for a school subject.
7. Candidates applying for the reserved category shall carefully indicate the claim for only one category in the admission form to be submitted to the University in the first instance before the C.E.T.. No change of category will be entertained /permitted at a later stage in the application form.
8. The allocation of college will be made through online counseling by the authorized University.
9. The subject combination will be decided by the admission committee constituted by Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar.
10. All seats in the B.Ed. colleges of Punjab will be filled through centralized Common Entrance Test followed by counseling by Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar.
11. After completion of counseling, the admission committee will take decision about filling of unfilled seats. The method proposed would be in light of the decisions taken by the Punjab and Haryana High Court regarding C.W.P. No. 19518 dated 14.12.2009. The admission committee would fill all the seats subject to the availability of eligible candidates.
12. In counseling, only the major subject would be allotted by the University. The minor subject would be allotted by the college. Allocation of seat does not mean confirmation of admission. The admission will be confirmed by the college concerned after checking and verification of documents.
13. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that correct information is provided when the on-line form is filled.
14. Any incorrect information will lead to disqualification.
15. Checking final certificates of the students allocated to the college would be the responsibility of the college.

16. In the first instance, counseling of All India seats will be held. The seats falling vacant in the All India quota will be converted into 85% state Quota Science and Arts seats. Then counseling for Science seats will be held. The seats falling vacant in the Science quota will be converted into Arts seats. After that, the counseling will start for the Arts seats.
17. Whatsoever information the college wants to give to the candidate should be made available on the college website. A separate printed prospectus is not required. There should be a help desk in each college to guide the students about the subject combinations and filling up of admission forms.
18. The candidates who are admitted in the Government College of Education and the Regional Centre, Bathinda of Punjabi University, Patiala shall deposit their fee directly in their respective colleges / regional centre.

6. VERIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS
