Day-2

Second day started with the discussion on NCF 2005, NCFTE 2010 and RTE 2009 to recap the key learning points. To find the real implication of Nai Talim, in session- 'Nai Talim Film (Case Method for Work Education)', a documentary video of Anand Niketan School was shown to the participants of FDP. In that school the curriculum is based on learning by doing and skill oriented activities like doing work in fields to get knowledge about agriculture, packaging, household activities, economic activities etc.

The second video of Baba Aya Singh School, Riarki Gurdaspur, was shown to participants. In that school students are very much self reliant. Whole administration of school is under the control of students themselves like teaching, examination, cleanliness etc. In that school there is no teacher, senior students teach the juniors. In that school environment is totally different from the environment of present general schools.

After tea break, there was a discussion on videos by the participants and all express their views and try to find out the loops and holes in our present education system.

In next session- 'Education relating to life-Work Education and its implications', all the participants were divided into groups and told them to give a innovative name. Groups had given the names like Leader group, Galaxy etc. Then the groups were instructed to frame the activities and also given a format to fill according to the activity framed on the different topics from the assigned typology of class Ist to Vth curriculum as given in the book 'Nai Talim'. All participants prepared creative lesson plan based on particular format covering the domains: Head (Cognitive)-knowledge, Heart (Affective)-Attitude, Psychomotor (Hand)-Skill and then presented by each group and handover the document of format to MGNCRE coordinator.

Proceeding

1. As per the information given by Dean, Faculty of Education, P.U. Chandigarh that Due to Covid-19 it is not possible to carry on school internship programme for Semester III students of B.Ed. As the course is entirely related to school practice teaching and due to closure of schools, it is not possible to conduct the practice in schools as per prescribed rules. So, it was resolved in the meeting of Board of Studies dated 21/7/20 to swap the syllabi of semester i.e. of B.Ed. IV to B.Ed. Semester III. Further all external practical's of B.Ed. will be conducted internally in online mode.

Admission to 3rd semester will be done from 27/7/20 to 3/8/20.

Three days' workshop was organised for teachers on how to create class in google meet and google classrooms and appreciated the efforts of teachers to create their youtube channels and same training will be given to students for enhancement of their skills.

Online teaching for Semester III will start from 5/8/20 till further information from university. Information regarding final exams of semester IV will be given in whatsapp groups of staff and students.
